INCREASING INFLUENCE OF SPIRITISM

FOR twenty-five years we have sought to forewarn the Lord's people against the public influence of the fallen angels, the wicked spirits in high positions (Eph. 6:12). The pamphlet we publish treating this subject has had a wide circulation. We have been widely told for good, not only among the Lord's people, warning them from "torments and dangerous investigations," but also amongst those who had been partially warned by the "sales" of these adversaries — some of them "redoubtable."
We remind our readers abroad that the Scriptures expressly show that the fallen spirits would be held under restraint for a long time, and that those restraints would gradually be relaxed in the closing of this Gospel Age, in the opening of the Millennial Age. The record is that they were "restrained [in Tartarus, our atmosphere] in lasting chains of darkness unto the judgment of the great day" (Jude 6, 2 Pet. 2:4). As now the "great day" nears, it is not surprising to witnesses to note that the chains are being gradually loosened, and that these "wicked spirits" have greater liberties than ever before.

"BE NOT HIGH MINDED, BUT FEAR"

There is still danger to those who "don't believe in spirits," and who regard as superstitious the Bible narratives of how our Lord and the Angels cast out demons, and how all wicked, witched, necromancers,
